

The KITCHEN CABINET

In all the affairs of human life, social as well as political, I have remarked that courtesies of a small and trivial character are the ones that strike deepest to the grateful and appreciative heart.

—Henry Clay.

INEXPENSIVE DISHES.
Inexpensive is an adjective which one uses these days with a large latitude as nothing, even the plebeian codfish, is inexpensive except by comparison.

Baked Codfish.—Take a package of codfish, soak over night, pour off water and parboil, then drain again and place in a shallow baking dish with just enough sweet milk to cover. Add bits of butter and pepper with salt if needed, bake one and a half to two hours. Remove the fish and thicken the milk with flour. Cook well then add the fish and serve.

Brown Sugar Icing.—Take a cupful of brown sugar and four tablespoonfuls of water, cook together until it makes a thread. Pour over the well-beaten white of one egg to which has been added one-fourth teaspoonful of cream of tartar. Beat until cool; flavor with vanilla.

Eggless Gingerbread.—Warm together half a cupful of brown sugar and one cupful of apple jelly with a third of a cupful of shortening. Remove from the fire and add three-quarters of a cupful of sour milk, two and one-half cupfuls of flour, sifted with one tablespoonful of ginger, the same of cocoa, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of soda and one-half teaspoonful of salt. Mix and beat, pour into a buttered tin and bake forty minutes.

Dried Apple Cake.—Cook two cupfuls of dried apple until tender, then strain and cook them in two cupfuls of molasses (with spices to taste) for twenty minutes. Cream one-half cupful of shortening with one cupful of sugar, add two beaten eggs, three cupfuls of flour, sifted with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a half teaspoonful of soda and the same of salt with two tablespoonfuls of milk; add the molasses and apples when cool, beat well and bake in a moderate oven.

Eggs in Cream Sauce.—Make a rich white sauce, using two tablespoonfuls of butter and one and one-half of flour cooked together, then add a cupful of this cream and cook until smooth. Toast bread crisp and brown; butter well. Add two hard-cooked eggs, chopped, to the white sauce and pour over the toast. Serve at once.

There are lives that crowd
Actions, pure, lofty, proud,
Into brief years—
Deaths that high-spirited men,
Counting three score and ten,
Read through their tears.

—Margaret Preston.

QUICK BREADS.
A hot gem or muffin, a crisp and golden corn bread, a popover or biscuit are all popular, and always welcome breads.

Bran Muffins.—Take three tablespoonfuls of brown sugar, mix with a tablespoonful of shortening, half a cupful of salt, one-half cupful of soda, a cupful of flour and two cupfuls of bran. Mix well and drop in well-greased muffin pans. This makes ten good-sized gems.

Southern Hoe Cakes.—Add a teaspoonful of salt and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder to one and one-third cupfuls of cornmeal. Beat the yolks of two eggs, add a cupful of milk, and beat hard for a few minutes, then add the whites beaten to a stiff froth. Put a tablespoonful of lard in a spider and drop the batter in by spoonfuls; turn when done on the underside. Serve very hot with bacon or with fried ham.

Sally Lunn.—Sift four cupfuls of flour with three teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one of salt, separate the yolks and whites of four eggs and beat well; add a cupful of melted fat, four tablespoonfuls of sugar, the flour with the yolks of the eggs, then fold in the stiffly beaten whites the last thing. Bake in muffin rings.

Snow Balls.—Make a batter of one cupful of thin cream, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, the beaten yolks of four eggs, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and flour enough to make a drop batter. Add the whites, beat stiff and fold in last. Fill two-thirds full deep granite cups, well buttered, and bake in a hot oven.

Graham Puffs.—Take two cupfuls of graham flour, four cupfuls of boiling milk and one teaspoonful of salt. Handle the dough as soft as possible, roll and cut into inch-thick circles; arrange in a buttered pan and bake in a very hot oven. If the oven is hot they will be very light.

THE HONOR CODE.

Those of us who would have our days glide by peacefully should not expect too much at the hands of others. This is a strenuous age—indeed, almost every minute of every hour is all too crowded for the average person. There is but one honor code to go by—play fair. The girl or woman who does so will have absolutely no regrets, and will prove a real inspiration to others around her.—New York Evening Telegram.

Every day is a fresh beginning;
Listen, my soul, to the glad refrain;
And spite old sorrow and older sinning,
And puzzles forecasted and possible pain,
Take heart with the day, and begin again.
—Susan Coolidge.

SOME NOURISHING SOUPS.

On a chilly night, or any other time of day, a dish of hot, well-seasoned soup is most gratifying.

Potato Soup.—Chop an onion, fry in butter, add six potatoes cut in dice, and one bay leaf. Add one quart of water, cover and cook until the potatoes are very soft. Add one quart of milk, rub through a sieve and reheat. Season to taste and thicken with the yolks of two eggs, beaten smooth with a cupful of cream.

Salsify Soup.—Scrape and clean three bunches of salsify; cut into dice and soak for 15 minutes in cold water. Drain, cover with fresh water and cook for an hour. Add a quart of milk, two tablespoonfuls of butter, salt and pepper to taste. Bring to the boiling point, add three milk crackers rolled fine, and serve at once.

Chicken and Curry Soup.—Slice one onion, fry in butter, add a large sour apple chopped, a sprig of thyme and parsley, a bay leaf, a tablespoonful of lemon juice and a teaspoonful of salt and one of curry powder. Add four cupfuls of chicken stock, simmer for 15 minutes, strain and add half a cupful of boiled rice, and serve at once.

Oxtail Soup.—Cut an oxtail into joints and fry in hot fat. Add two pounds of lean beef, four carrots, three onions and a bunch of sweet herbs. Cover with cold water, simmer until the meat is very tender; strain, reheat, thicken with two tablespoonfuls each of flour and butter-cooked together, thinned with a little of the soup. Cook until well done.

Chicken Gumbo.—Cut up a large, tender chicken and fry brown in butter with a quart of oil. Add two cupfuls of tomatoes, a large onion chopped, half a cupful of raw ham, and water to cover. Simmer until the chicken falls from the bones; then remove the bones and add 12 soda crackers, a tablespoonful of butter, pepper and salt to season and three hard-cooked eggs chopped fine.

With the same letter heaven and home begin,
And words dwell together in the mind;
For they who would a home in heaven find,
Must first a heaven in home begin to find.
—Joseph Verry.

SUBSTITUTES FOR MEAT.

Certain foods are well suited to replace meat at the breakfast table. Potatoes appears at dinner 865 times a year, so it is a good idea to bar it from the first meal of the day unless used in hash.

Fried Egg Plant.—Slice the egg plant in slices one-third of an inch thick; pare, put into a deep dish and cover with cold water well salted. Soak one hour. Drain, wipe, dip in egg and crumbs and fry brown.

Corn Oysters.—Use canned omelet, if the fresh corn is not obtainable. By scoring deeply with sharp knife, the inside of the kernel may be pressed out and used. Use two cupfuls of corn, half a cupful of milk, one cupful of sifted flour, two eggs, a teaspoonful of salt and one tablespoonful each of butter and lard. Beat the yolks of the eggs, add the milk, the flour and salt. Beat to a smooth batter, add the corn, then beat again, adding the stiffly beaten whites last. Put the lard and butter into a frying pan and when very hot put into the batter by small spoonfuls. Brown on one side, then turn. If the batter is too thick add more milk, the thinner the batter the more delicate and tender the oysters will be.

Baked Eggs and Mushrooms.—Take one pound of fresh mushrooms, clean and wipe dry. Put into a saucepan with four tablespoonfuls of butter, half a teaspoonful of salt and a dash of pepper. Set over the fire till thoroughly hot, then turn into a shallow baking dish and break over them six eggs. Sprinkle with buttered crumbs and dust with pepper and salt. Bake in a hot oven till the eggs are set. Serve on buttered toast.

Worth Pondering Over.

Did you ever hear of a man who had striven all his life faithfully and singly toward an object and in no measure obtained it? Did ever a man try heroism, magnanimity, truth, sincerity and find that there was no advantage in them, that it was a vain endeavor?—Thoreau.

I'M SO GLAD I DIDN'T TAKE NASTY, SICKENING CALOMEL

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Makes You Feel Just Grand and You Can Eat Anything and Not Be Salivated

Calomel salivates! If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated. If your skin is sallow, your breath bad, your stomach sour just go to any drugstore and get for a few cents a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous Calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty Calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take Calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, with a hearty appetite, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children.—Adv.

DIDN'T FREEZE HIS BROTHER
Of Course He Was Not Going to Admit That the Little Fellow Was Afraid.

An Indianapolis matron was giving a birthday party for her little daughter and had among the guests the two sons of the family minister. They enjoyed the party and made many quaint remarks.
But at the supper table they did the best. Suddenly the fuse burned out and the dining room was in darkness. The hostess urged the children to sit still until she could get some candles. "But you may eat what is on your plates if you wish to while I am hunting them," she told them.
The youngest son of the paragon began to weep aloud. He was really afraid, but his older brother offered another explanation. "He doesn't know what to do, Mrs. —," he said. "You see we're used to light meals at our house."—Indianapolis News.

Expensive.
"You shouldn't get married," said your daughter getting married. You are not losing her, but really gaining a son-in-law.
"That's just the trouble," said the bride's mother. "That means another mouth to feed and the cost of living already out of reach."

Christ and Nicodemus

By REV. GEORGE GUILLE
Extension Department, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—Ye must be born again.—John 3:3.

The moon and all the stars are out to light a trembling traveler upon a darkened road. One of the best men of his time has come to Jesus Christ—a man of the highest morality and the utmost devotion to religion. By coming at all to this Prophet of Nazareth his reputation as a religious leader is imperiled, so he comes by night. But he has come to the Light, and night for him can be no more; in future he'll walk in the light.

"A man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus," so upright, so good, so religious, such a charming gentleman, surely the Lord will welcome him into our arms! But no. Alas, he has not yet begun to live! "Except a man be born again," he cannot perceive the kingdom of God." He cannot even have right thoughts about it, to say nothing of his entering it.

He has come, saying: "We know that thou art a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miracles that thou dost, except God be with him." And, oh, what a lesson this Teacher came from God has for him! "Here," thinks he, "is one who can teach me something that shall make me a better man than I am," and he learns that the flesh does not need teaching because it has been judged; that all that is born of it is still but flesh; and that man in the flesh cannot be made fit for God. He must, by second birth, be brought into the new creation. And nothing short of this can ever meet the mind of God.

Nicodemus speaks of miracles, but the Lord will not stop to discuss such trifles. He will tell at once of the greatest and most important of all miracles: the regeneration of a soul. Men think that if they can understand miracles, they could understand Christ and the new birth. Oh, if they would only believe what is written, that "in him was life; and the life was the Light of men!" Once you have the life that is in Christ Jesus you are in the light forever, and shall never have any difficulty about miracles or about anything that you find in Holy Scripture!

Striking it is that the only place in all Scripture in which the new birth is pressed is here, where the Lord presses it upon this upright man. Ah, if he, with his goodness and religion, must be born again, what folly to claim exception from this necessity for any man that lives today!

But how? He is bewildered by the thought of such a change. "How can these things be?" And the Lord makes no answer. He is not at pains to explain the workings of the Holy Spirit. The question is not, "Do you understand?" but "Do you believe what God says?" If, so there is another "must" in this discourse that explains it all! "Even so must the Son of Man be lifted up; that whosoever believeth in him shall not perish, but have eternal life."

"Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." Water is in Scripture the symbol both of the Word of God and of the Spirit of God. The Holy Spirit works through the word to accomplish the regeneration of the soul, bringing the sinner face to face with Christ. In this regeneration a judicial cleansing is effected. It is that of which we read in Titus 3:5, "the washing of regeneration," and of which the Lord spoke to Peter, declaring that it cleanses "every whit." By the Spirit's ministry in the word the sinner is brought to see what the Lord pointed out to Nicodemus, that he is the antitype of the brazen serpent, enduring on the cross of shame the judgment that was the sinner's due. The moment he accepts that he is born again.

One came to me saying, I cannot understand about the new birth and am so distressed over your insistence upon the necessity of it.

"It is not necessary to understand it in order to attain it," I replied, but simply to believe in him who has made it possible.

"But I have been taught all my life that I was good! I would go to heaven when I die."

"And so I," I said, "but it is not true. But do you believe the gospel? Do you believe that when Jesus died it was for you and that because he died for you he is exalted in heaven?"

"I do with all my heart."

"Then you believe that Jesus is the Christ?"

"Yes."

"Very well, then, read this," and as I placed my finger on I John 5:1, she read it aloud: "Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God." And with a cry of joy she exclaimed: "Oh, I see it now! I see it now! I am saved!"

Trapped!
Often he returned home late—so late that when wife asked the time he'd murmur, "Oh, about twelve, dear!" or "Just after midnight, yet!" But one evening, or rather morning, she said, instead of the usual request: "John, dear, I wish you'd stop the clock, its ticking worries me." The hapless, unsuspecting man did so.

Next morning wife asked artlessly: "What time did you come home last night, John?"

"About midnight," he replied, glumly. "John," she said coldly, "look at the clock!"

The hands of the timepiece pointed at 2:15!

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs. This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

The other day an Indiana city school superintendent mentioned a grade teacher to the English department in the high school. He was discussing the work with her when she suddenly said:

"Oh, Mr. —, it's going to be so hard for me. You see I've always used so much slug and now when I teach English I won't dare use any more."

"Slugg," ejaculated the superintendent. "Well, better use Alcol, you'll have to cut that out now."

WOMEN NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition they may cause the other organs to become diseased. Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Rindgeville, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. May have returned home from a visit to Houston, Galveston and San Antonio, Texas, where they spent the holiday season in travel past time.

With several formal announcements of candidates appearing in the Echo, the Bay St. Louis, La., edition of the primary election program is being published.

Mr. A. H. Mundo and family are among arrivals of the week from New Orleans and have leased the villa at the Hotel de Ville for the winter season.

The Echo exceedingly regrets the death of its young friend, Lloyd Gray, of Bay St. Louis, who was killed in a U. S. government truck accident, which occurred in New Orleans, October 17, and news of which was only received here this week.

Lloyd Gray was a native of Pearl River, La., and a grandson of Capt. C. C. Gray, who with his good wife, had reared him from boyhood. He had served through the late war with the 15th Division, Kansas National Guard, and when discharged from the expeditionary forces he re-enlisted in the Army of Occupation, and it was here the accident occurred. He was 21 years of age. Capt. Gray and family have the deepest sympathy of their many friends in Hancock County.

The necessity of a Chamber of Commerce organization for Bay St. Louis is felt more and more. The need of such an organized force here is becoming more urgent and it is hoped 1920 will not go by without its realization. Such a body represents the best thought and action of the community as a whole and a representative and as an organized body should prove of immeasurable value in backing up many projects such as the building of the automobile highway, the bridge across the bay and other public interests, and could prove a powerful leverage in securing many private enterprises. Let us have a Chamber of Commerce organized along new lines at an early date.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Taylor and baby, Bob Wesley, are here from St. Louis, Mo., visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McGinn, the grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor have numerous friends here who are delighted with their visit. They intend remaining for a fortnight longer, when they will leave for Cedar Falls, Iowa.
